F. D.'s Aides Fight to Save Farm Measure

HOUSE BALLOTS AGAINST WHEAT MARKET QUOTAS

Bankhead Trying To Obtain Reverse Of Test Vote In Lower Branch

SHOWDOWN DELAY SEEN

Other Three "Must" Actions Delayed Indefinitely

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7—(UP)—Congressional leaders abandoned hope for three of the four bills of President Roosevelt's special session program today and concentrated their efforts to enact his farm bill despite increasing opposition.

In the house, Speaker William B. Bankhead, D. Ala., hoped to reverse a test vote that removed wheat marketing quotas from the farm bill, preventing complete rejection of the compulsory quota phases of the measure and bring it to a vote Wednesday. Other veteran congressmen, however, expected delay at least until Thursday.

In the senate, Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley, D. Ky., appeared unable to get a final vote until the end of the week. Foes of the measure constantly threatened to revise it drastically or send it back to the agriculture committee for rewriting.

Much Speed Necessary

Even with the best of luck in both houses, the administration strategists cannot get the two contrasting bills to a senate-house conference for adjustment of differences until next week, leaving nine working days in which the conferees must practically work out a new bill and return it for the approval of both houses.

LATE TREASURY HEAD ABSOLVED OF FRAUD CLAIM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7—(UP)—The board of tax appeals today upheld a portion of the federal government's claims for back taxes against the late Andrew W. Mellon but absolved him of fraud. The government had sought to collect $3,075,103 in 1931 income taxes and penalties from the Pittsburgh capitalist and former secretary of the treasury, who died last September. The board did not specify the exact amount of Mellon's liability but ruled that a final settlement should be negotiated between attorneys for the government and Mellon's estate on the basis of the board's findings of fact.

Labor Board Considers Action Against Editor

STEBENVILLE, Dec. 7—(UP)—The question of whether any action will be taken against a trade magazine editor who defied a National Labor Relations board subpoena was in the hands of board officials in Washington today.

The case of Hartley W. Barclay, New York editor of "Mill and Factory," who refused to obey a board order to produce records on which he based a story criticizing conduct of a N.L.R.B. hearing here on anti-union charges against Weirton Steel Co., was turned over to Washington authorities last night.

Barclay had been ordered to testify at the hearing yesterday, but failed to appear. He previously had notified the board that he did not intend to obey the subpoena because he felt it was a violation of the constitutional guarantee of a free press. Trial Examiner Edward G. Smith said records of yesterday's session would be forwarded to Washington for final decision regarding the Barclay article while Isadore Poller, board attorney, declared the board's summons "does not in the remotest affect the issue of the freedom of the press."

"The issue is whether or not the article was the creation of the Weirton Steel Co., directly or indirectly, whether or not it was created for the purpose of interfering with the rights of those employees, contrary to the Wagner act."

Action May Be Taken
Poller hinted that legal action holding the recalcitrant editor in default might be taken in a U. S. district court in Pittsburgh or in Kentucky. A decision on that question will probably be made in Washington after a study of records sent from here.

The Barclay article, which was printed in the October issue of the magazine, branded the 17-week Weirton hearing, result of charges brought by the Committee for Industrial Organization, a "colossal burlesque staged with taxpayers' money" and a "tragedy" to many Weirton townspeople. It compared the N.L.R.B. and the C. I. O. with the OGPU—Russian secret police.

The Washington board will decide also whether to take action against George Ketchum, president of a Pittsburgh publicity firm, who likewise failed to answer a board subpoena, he reportedly was to be questioned regarding distribution of reprints of the (Continued on Page Ten)

Settlement of a claim for $600 resulting from an auto wreck on the Circleville-London county road, between Darbyville and Derby, was made Monday by the county commissioners with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dailey, Madison county. County officials said Mrs. Dailey suffered back injuries on May 21, 1937, when the auto in which she was riding struck a bump in the road.

Elizabeth, 11, Busy Preparing for Day She Will Become Queen of Britons

(Copyright 1937 by United Press)
LONDON, Dec. 7—(UP)—"If I am ever queen the first thing I will do will be to make a law that people can't ride or drive horses on Sunday. Horses must have holidays."

Princess Elizabeth turned her blue eyes to her teacher and made that pronouncement when, while learning the table of British kings and queens, she was told that one day she probably would be monarch of the empire.

Such at least is the story that has delighted London. And certainly there is this truth in it—that the 11-year-old Elizabeth in all probability will become queen, that she is well aware of that fact, and that already she is being trained for the throne.

Only the birth of a son to King George and Queen Elizabeth could prevent the princess from succeeding her father. That is an extremely unlikely event. Queen Elizabeth now is 37. The difficulties that attended the births of Princess Elizabeth and her sister, Margaret Rose, mitigate against additional children. Elizabeth was brought into the world by a

Mrs. Maria Brown Kane Davis, 90, of Kingston, a missionary to China from 1870 until 1925 and one of the organizers of the first girls' school in that country, died Monday afternoon of burns suffered when her clothing caught fire from a stove.

Mrs. Davis was the widow of George Richey Davis. They were married in China in 1874. After his death in 1925 she returned to the United States. Mrs. Davis was born May 27, 1847, on a ship crossing the Atlantic ocean.

She had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Davis Lewis. Mrs. Lewis was ironing Monday when she heard a noise in her mother's room. She found the aged woman's clothing blazing. After her clothes had become ignited, Mrs. Davis fell on a bed. It took burst into flames. Kingston firemen were called to save the residence from burning.

Daughter's Effort Futile

Mrs. Lewis tried to save her mother by throwing a blanket over her, but her efforts were futile, the aged woman dying a short time later.

Mrs. Davis had resided in Boston, Mass., before going to China. She had told friends that she was present when the Women's Foreign Missionary society was organized in that city. Mrs. Davis and a Miss Mary Porter, missionary in China, organized the first school for girls in that country. She taught in the native language. She was a member of the Foreign Missionary society of the Kingston Methodist Episcopal church.

PETITION BEING DRAWN AGAINST LIGHT CONTRACT

Since one week has passed and Mayor W. J. Graham has taken no action on the 10-year street lighting contract with the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co., referendum petitions to place the issue before voters are being prepared. It was learned Tuesday.

Mayor Graham said he removed the ordinance from his safe Monday to permit the stenographer of a Circleville attorney to make a copy. In the event the mayor does not veto the ordinance, sending it back to council, the petitions will be circulated. Nearly all of the councilmen who take office the first of the year favor the referendum. They oppose a 10-year contract.

The ordinance was submitted to the mayor one week ago. He has 10 days to act on the legislation.

Approval Granted for Blanket Road Project

Pickaway county's blanket road improvement project has been approved by President Roosevelt, Congressman Harold K. Claypool advised The Herald Tuesday.

The project includes improvement of 9.2 miles roads and channel work on Salt creek at its intersection with the Tarlton-Adelphi road.

Townships listed for the road improvements are Walnut, Madison and Saltcreek. Improvements are to include grading, widening, berming, extension and reconstructing drainage lines and structures and applying surface materials.

The project includes 5.7 miles of road north of Ringgold. Those listed are the Ashville-Fairfield and the East Ringgold-Northern roads. These roads are in Walnut and Madison townships. The others are in Saltcreek township east of Tarlton. One leads eastward from Tarlton to Moccasin road. The others are Moccasin road and Hedges road.

The project as submitted amounts to $51,468 with the federal share listed at $40,130.

This project and one prepared by the city for various improvements are expected to take care of W. P. A. labor during the winter months. The telegram from Mr. Claypool says the actual undertaking of the county's project is subject to approval of the U. S. comptroller general and orders of Carl Watson, state administrator of W. P. A.

DAVEY PREPARES TO SPEED HELP TO UNEMPLOYED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7—(UP)—Governor Martin L. Davey of Ohio prepared today for a general mobilization of state employees to aid in registration of unemployed for compensation benefits under the Social Security act.

The governor said after conferences with the Social Security board that it would be impossible to begin unemployment insurance payments on Jan. 1, as he had originally proposed in his Thanksgiving day announcement.

He added, however, that he was certain the payments could be started "much sooner," than next July 1, which board members said was the earliest date by which an administrative system could be completed.

DETROIT PRIEST RETURNS TO AIR ABOUT JANUARY 1

DETROIT, Dec. 7—(UP)—The Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, whose militant nation-wide broadcasts caused his archbishop to "discipline" him only last October, today looked forward to returning to the air soon after Jan. 1.

Father Coughlin cancelled a series of broadcasts Oct. 9 after Archbishop Edward Mooney of Detroit refused to approve the priest's "reply" to criticism.

A statement released today by Father Coughlin said: "Announcement was made today of Father Charles Coughlin's return to the air in the very near future. It is understood that all matters have been clarified and will be fully explained in Father Coughlin's first appearance in his new series of broadcasts shortly after the first of the year."

Archbishop Mooney said the resumption "represents an exercise of the liberty of action he has always enjoyed in this matter, and marks no change in the conditions under which they are conducted."

SHANGHAI, Dec. 7—(UP)—Through a trail of fire and smoke the Japanese armies fought their way past the suburbs of Nanking and arrived tonight at the north and West gates of the capital.

While the Japanese forces massed against the ancient walls, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek fled by airplane, indicating that organized resistance was near an end and the fall of the capital was imminent.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 7—(UP)—The main Japanese army, battering furiously at weakening Chinese lines, hoped to enter Nanking today.

Reports from the front said that the Japanese had reached Nanking's walls and were ready for the final onslaught on the capital which the government abandoned two weeks ago.

Foreign military observers reported that the Chinese left wing apparently had collapsed permitting the Japanese to proceed almost without opposition. They said, however, that the need for bringing up heavier reinforcements to that and other sectors of the line east of Nanking had slowed down the advance.

One observer said that it would (Continued on Page Ten)

SLAIN CONVICT'S BROTHERS FACE PAROLE INQUIRY

COLUMBUS, Dec. 7—(UP)—Two brothers of Roy "Happy" Marino, slain Youngstown gangster and paroled convict, were to testify today before the special grand jury investigating Ohio's parole and pardon system.

The brothers of the late racketeer are Andy Marino, associated with a motor sales firm, and Rocco Marino, taxicab operator. Both are reputable business men.

Marino was taken for a gangland "ride" last September. His murder was unsolved.

The grand jury is attempting to learn whether Marino's parole was "bought." He served 14 months of a 20 years to life sentence for the robbery of the Louisville branch of a Canton bank.

The name of Arch W. Naylor, alleged parole "broker," was linked with the Marino parole in a recent newspaper expose. Naylor, now held in the Zanesville jail, testified before the special grand jury last week and was accused by Attorney General Herbert S. Duffy of not telling the whole truth. Naylor denied that he had given false testimony.

Marino was released, his family said, because Charles Kent, now in the New Jersey state prison, confessed to the bank robbery for which Marino was convicted.

NEW LEGAL STEPS TAKEN IN AMANDA OPTION FIGHT

LANCASTER, Dec. 7—A motion was sustained by Judge Frank M. Acton of Common Pleas court, Monday, removing the board of elections as defendants in a petition charging irregularities in the recent local option vote in Amanda township.

The remaining defendants, the Rev. T. C. Gregory and Mildred Greiner, of an Amanda township dry organization, then filed motions asking the petition be made more definite and certain, and that it be dismissed.

The original petition charged that persons, not residents of the township, were permitted to vote. An ordinance forbidding the sale of beer was adopted 142 to 139.

COMMITTEES STUDY UNEMPLOYMENT AID AMENDMENT, RELIEF LEVY VOTE

HOUSE TAXATION GROUP REFUSES DAVEY'S OFFER

Local Welfare Issues Still Need 65 Percent of Vote For Relief Bonds

MORE BILLS REPORTED

Effort to Clog Loopholes in Sales Division Made

COLUMBUS, Dec. 7 — (UP) — Two major phases of the governor's jobless aid program — the unemployment insurance amendment and the proposal to lower the required vote on relief levies — came under the scrutiny of committees of the cautiously-moving special session of the legislature today.

The newly-organized senate commerce and industry committee, headed by Sen. William M. Boyd, ardent pro-labor member from Cleveland, was to study Gov. Davey's proposal to begin maximum benefit payments of $15 a week to jobless beginning Jan. 1, 1938, instead of a year later.

The house taxation committee was to reconsider its action of yesterday in voting down, 10 to 10, a bill to permit passage of local welfare and relief levies by a bare majority instead of a 65 percent vote of the electorate, as at present. Committee approval requires 12 "yes" votes.

It was understood proponents of the measure, convinced it cannot pass in its present form, were prepared to offer a compromise bill calling for a 55 percent vote for approval.

Enactment of the "bare majority" proposal has been urged by both the governor and the League of Municipalities — joint legislative committee.

Two other committee-approved relief bills — one to increase the 1938 sales tax allocation for poor relief from $6,000,000 to $6,500,000 and another to authorize counties to issue short term notes in anticipation of surpluses in the their relief bond retirement funds — were expected to come up for house action Wednesday.

Three new relief measures were introduced during last night's brief house session.

Rep. John T. DeRichter, D., Cuyahoga, offered an administration measure to appropriate $1,000,000 for emergency relief purposes in December. The funds would be loaned on the basis of the counties' needs and would be repaid in 10 monthly installments in 1938 out of sales tax relief allocations.

Grants Proposed

An emergency bill to allocate $2,000,000 to the counties as relief grants in December according to the subdivisions' needs was introduced by Rep. Louis N. Laderman, D., Lucas. The bill is said to be opposed by the administration.

Authorization to county budget commissioners to distribute surplus classified tax revenues any time during 1937 was proposed in a bill introduced by Rep. Frank J. Richter, D., Hamilton.

Three administration-measures, recommended by Gov. Davey in special messages, were introduced by Rep. Richter. They provided for the plugging of loop holes in sales tax administrative machinery to produce an estimated additional $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 annually; removing sales tax exemptions for out-of-state purchasers unless the goods are to be shipped out of Ohio, and elections of supreme court judges on a system by which each candidate would run for a specified term.

Rep. William H. Whetor, D., Lawrence, introduced a bill providing for a minimum allotment of $17,500,000 as the state's share of old age pensions payments in 1938. Additional funds would be taken from the state treasury if revenues from the liquor profits and the $1-a-gallon liquor tax did not reach the minimum.

Style Whimsies

Oh, oh, boudoir caps are still in the limelight, say negligee buyers. The woman who breakfasts in bed, and the one who wants to keep her coiffure smooth and waved, are wearing them. Just another thing to add to the Christmas list as a possibility for the girl friend.

More delicate colors for spring is the forecast of Jacques Heim of Paris. He declares that gentle looking cottons inspired by the faded, washed-out peasant squares will be used. On the other hand, the color card just issued by the Textile Color Card association suggests that gay colors will be popular in the spring. The old favorites, rust and terra cotta shades, are to continue to hold their place in the sun.

Three bells and all's well in the Music Hall. The chimes have rung, announcer Ken Carpenter is out of the doghouse and Bing Crosby announces with a return to his old confidence that Adolphe Menjou Verree Teasdale and Josephine Tuminia will visit the Hall Thursday, Dec. 9.

The customary order of things was seriously disrupted by the Hall's temperamental bell-ringer, Mr. Carpenter, when he found he wasn't "in the mood" to ring the chimes at the station break in the middle of the program two Thursdays ago.

Last Thursday the lethargy had passed and the bells rang with unusual fervor and ton quality. With the uncertainty of "L'Affaire Chimes" removed, Bing knows he can count on things happening in the regular way again.

HEAVENS FOUND TO GLOW WITH INVISIBLE RAYS

MT. LOCKE OBSERVATORY, Fort Davis, Tex. (UP)—Dr. Otto Struve, joint director of the Mt. Locke Observatory in the Davis Mountains and the Yerkes Observatory of the University of Chicago, discovered that the midnight sky is lighted up with infra-red rays that dim the stars. The only trouble is that the human eye can't see the infra-red.

A new camera installed at the observatory here was responsible for the discovery. The camera has a spherical mirror and a thin lens of ultra-violet glass.

"Dr. C. T. Elvey and I used this instrument for photographing the sky with infra-red plates sensitive to radiations intermediate between the reddest visible rays and the heat rays," Dr. Struve said. "We found to our surprise that the night sky is constantly luminous in infra-red light so that if our eyes were sensitive to these radiations they would see the sky as a luminous surface upon which the stars would appear relatively pale."

Thinking he was dead, the natives did not approach, Knutson said, but after he came to his senses several returned and took him to camp.

He hovered near death for a few days but continual nursing by a faithful porter saved him.

Knutson said he had about 50 bee stings on his left hand and more than 200 on his forearm. He even had a few inside his mouth.

DISPOSAL PLANT AT CHILDREN'S HOME APPROVED

Cost of About $4,500 Set For County Project, Okehed By Healthers

SPRING WORK PLANNED

Commissioners Financing, Maintaining Work

County commissioners announced Monday that plans for a sewage disposal plant at the Children's home have been approved by the state department of health. A resolution to be sent to the board of health in which the commissioners agreed to provide for proper operation and maintenance of the system, to submit samples of filtering materials to the department before they were installed, and to install the plant by Dec. 1, 1938, was adopted.

The county expects to build the plant in the spring. It is roughly estimated to cost about $4,500. Efforts were made to have it included in the W. P. A. program but the project was too small, officials said.

MOSE RUTTER'S APPEAL VOICED IN CHILLICOTHE

Among the five cases presented to the Fourth District Court of Appeals, meeting in Chillicothe Tuesday, was the appeal of Mose Rutter, formerly of Circleville.

Rutter is in the Ohio penitentiary serving a sentence of one to 15 years for burglary and larceny of 10 or 12 chickens from Luther Maag, Colerain township, Ross county. His attorneys claim there was insufficient evidence for a conviction.

Greatest interest in the cases to be considered concerns the appeal of the parents of Helen Shirley Arlene Nolan, 6, from the adoption decree granted to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Fromm, Carlisle Place, Chillicothe, by Probate Judge Marshall G. Fenton. When the parents, Robert and Bertha Nolan, Kingston, refused consent to the adoption, Judge Fenton gave consent. The child has been in the Fromm house since Feb. 8, 1933.

LUCKY CHARMS POPULAR

SYDNEY (UP) — More than 250,000 "lucky charms" are sold every year in New South Wales. "Nine out of ten people in all walks of life are wearers of charms," one dealer said. "They go out of fashion like women's hats, and new charms are manufactured to take their place."

GARRETT TRIAL AGAINST COUNTY SET JANUARY 17

Wayne Township Resident
Asks $10,150 Damages
After Bridge Wreck

OTHER SUITS PENDING

Walter R. Bunn Killed In October, 1936, Crash

Suit of Ernest Garrett, Wayne township, against the county commissioners, asking $10,150 damages for injuries received in an auto mishap at the bridge over Salt creek on the Tarlton-Adelphi road in October, 1936, has been reassigned for Jan. 17. The case had previously been scheduled for Dec. 13 in Common Pleas court.

This suit is one of four resulting from the wreck. Carl Wiggins, Washington township, sued for $3,000. A Fayette county jury returned a verdict in favor of the commissioners. The suits charge the bridge collapsed, while the county commissioners contend the auto struck the bridge and caused it to fall.

The administrator of the estate of Walter R. Bunn, killed in the accident, seeks $25,400. Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins sued for $523 for their son's injury.

MOONEY FRIENDS PLAN TO APPEAL TO HIGH COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7 — (UP) — Defenders of Thomas J. Mooney prepared today for their appeal to the United States supreme court where the labor unions' cause celebre will compete for the nation's interest with the wages and hours bill in congress, and the administration's future attempts to restore peace between the two warring labor organizations.

Gov. Elmer A. Benson of Minnesota addressed a rally in Mooney's behalf here Sunday, which was considered to be a prelude to a new fight for his freedom in the supreme court. George T. Davis, Mooney's local counsel, is preparing to appeal from a California supreme court decision which denied Mooney a writ of habeas corpus a few weeks ago.

Mooney was convicted of the Preparedness Day bombing in 1916 that killed 10 persons, and he was sentenced to life imprisonment after a trial that his friends said was based on prejudice to his labor activities and perjured testimony.

Labor forces have fought for his vindication throughout the union's rise in prestige under New Deal laws, and the dual union organization of the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization.

BUICK SALES CONTINUE UPWARD

Priced Just Above
The Lowest

Buick finished the 1937 season with 240,000 cars and have placed a factory schedule this year at 260,000. From the present rate of sales on the brilliant 1938 model car this schedule will have to be increased.

While the average increase in prices on the new model cars is about 7% the increase on Buick is only 4.5%. This puts the price of Buick at less than $200.00 above the lowest priced cars with the same equipment.

The new 1938 Buick is really NEW, it is not just a change in the radiator grille. Among it's many improvements you will find two revolutionary and exclusive features in the Dynaflex Motor and Torque-free Springing. It is the most advanced motorcar for 1938.

While the national average of sales on Buick have been about 4.5% of the total number of cars sold or one out of twenty the following will give you a picture of the November sales on this great 1938 Buick.

% of Sales
Detroit .....11.3—1 out of 9
Cleveland ..... 9.9—1 out of 10
Columbus ..... 8.9—1 out of 11
Circleville .....14.0—1 out of 7

You cannot afford to buy a car this year without first inspecting and comparing the Buick which is sold and serviced by E. E. Clifton and D. A. Yates. A five passenger Buick with 122" wheelbase, weight of 3515 lbs. and 107 H. P. motor delivers for $995.00.

Monday Club Members
Enjoy Antique Show

Miss Florence Tells of Role Played by Collector

Refusing to permit the snowy streets to keep them from attending another Monday Club meeting, many interested members ventured forth with their precious heirlooms and antiques to furnish an exhibition, an appropriate background for the evening's program.

Miss Carrie E. Johnson, chairman of the Home Arts and Decoration Division, presented Miss Anna Florence, speaker, her subject being, "My Experiences as a Collector." Miss Florence told of the many articles she has collected. She had numerous antiques on exhibit.

The following statements are taken from Miss Florence's address:

"Tact is one thing useful to a collector. It is not often a collector can appraise an article without bias. Collecting often begins as a hobby and frequently ends as a business. It offers its participants many thrills and surprises.

"Genuine antiques date usually from 1800 or earlier in this community. Some antiques are so faithfully reproduced one cannot detect the fact. Glassware is an example of antiques and some pieces often sell for $15. Age is a requirement but it is not always desirable in antiques. Sausage grinders, old sewing machines and other homely articles are types of this class, advertised for sale. Beds and clocks are most numerous on the list of antiques and often most valuable. In purchasing antiques, collectors often choose ones because they are associated with their childhood memories."

"There is rivalry in collecting. Buyers vie with each other in offering prices.

"Massiveness in furniture has lost its charm for collectors. Plain simple lines in handmade furniture are most desirable. The early life of our citizens as well as our country's history is seen in the collections of furniture in museums and also in the display of antiques. The mound builders and Indians left behind countless antiques. One citizen picked up at various times from newly plowed ground enough Indian darts and stones for a collection which he sold for $3,000. Modern tractors and farm implements have ruined some still in the soil.

"Countless antiques of value remain undiscovered in outbuildings, attics and secluded places, and one must brave cobwebs and grime before finding them."

Mrs. R. R. Bales was chairman of the exhibit of antique glass, china, furniture and historical documents. At the conclusion of the address, she asked members bringing heirlooms to identify them with a brief account of their history. Lovely pewter, glass and silver pieces were displayed. There were articles of old china, some prints and odd household fixtures. Even antique toys, miniatures and historical documents were given a place in this unusual exhibit. Other members assisting Mrs. Bales were Mrs. William Mack, Mrs. Anna Chandler, Mrs. Charles Gerhardt, Mrs. Charles Gilmore, Mrs. G. P. Hunsicker, Mrs. Orion King, Miss Clara Littleton, Mrs. Charles H.

Gold Makes Dress
Gay for Date

A SIMPLE dress will serve the business girl for her work. But when she has a date with her very best boy friend in the evening she must dress it up a bit.

Margaret Lindsay, screen and stage actress, shows how it is easily done by the addition of gold mesh cuffs and gold flowers at the high neckline of her plain dress to create the necessary festive appearance.

A high peaked black velvet dinner hat completes her costume.

This idea of a perfectly plain dress to be worn as a background for all sorts of gay fripperies is one of the most fascinating in modern fashions. An ingenious lass can do magical things with a few yards of this or that—silk, lace, spangles, or whatever, to make the said dinner dress fit into almost any event.

After a hard day at the typewriter, in the shop or schoolroom, she can retire for a short while, wash, put on fresh makeup and maybe change the way she has been wearing her hair, slip a bright scarf around her neck or waist, a tiny gleaming jacket over her dress, a fresh collar or some sparkling jewelry, and she is all ready for a gay evening.

Frank Goff were guests, Monday evening when Miss Nelle Anderson was hostess to the members of her bridge club. Three tables of players progressed during the evening, and prizes were won by Mrs. Goff and Mrs. J. Wray Henry. Confections were served by the hostess during the evening. Mrs. Mary G. Morris will entertain the club next Monday evening.

Congrove-Harrison

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harrison, of near Chillicothe, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Helen Lucille, to Mr. Raymond Congrove, of near Williamsport. The single ring ceremony was performed, Saturday in Greenup, Ky., by the Rev. A. S. Cooper, of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Congrove will make their home for the present with the bride's parents in Chillicothe.

Von Bora Society Meets

Mrs. J. Wallace Crist was elected president of the Von Bora society, Monday evening, at the December meeting of the society. Sixty members of the society and their guests were present for the unusually interesting meeting.

The parish house was attractively decorated in Christmas greens for the affair, one large and two small Christmas trees being the center of interest.

Miss Catherine Fischer, president conducted the business and devotional sessions. During this hour it was voted that society members would entertain the ladies at the Home and Hospital at a Christmas party Wednesday evening, Dec. 15, at 7 o'clock. They also planned carol singing for their enjoyment.

Other officers chosen for the ensuing year were Mrs. William Fitzpatrick, vice president; Mrs. Willis Liston, secretary; Mrs. Clarence Martin treasurer, and Mrs. Walter Heise, pianist.

Mrs. Larry Athey gave an authoritative address on major relief in Pittsburgh, Pa., telling of her own experiences as case worker. The talk was well received by the audience. Carolyn Herrmann, accompanied at the piano by her mother, Mrs. Karl Herrmann, played on her accordion, "Away in the Manger" and "Sweeter were Ne'er the Bells Ringing". Mrs. Frank Webbe gave a reading, "Why Santa is a Man." Miss Rosemary Schreiner played "Silent Night" and "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear", on her saxophone, accompanied at the piano by Miss Dorothy Walters. Miss Ella Mason read a story, "The Blizzard". A group of the society members then sang a number of Christmas carols including, "The First Noel" and "While Shepherds Watched their Flocks by Night". Mary Ann Beck recited "Christmas Bells." For the last number of the program, Margaret List dressed in costume, spoke on the spirit of Christmas and presented the gifts brought for exchange to the members. Later these gifts were collected and will be given to the firemen for their toy distribution.

Refreshments were served during the evening at long tables attractively arranged with holiday greens and lighted with burning candles. Arrangements were in charge of the December committee with Mrs. James Stout chairman, and Mrs. Erma Gehres, Miss Minnie Mason, Mrs. Fred Boggs, Miss Besse Riffle, Mrs. L. B. Davison and Mrs. George Fissell, assisting.

Farewell Party

Forty-eight members of the United Brethren church gathered in the community house Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walker, retiring janitor and his wife, were honored at a farewell party.

Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society which was responsible for the pleasant affair. Mr. Walker has been an appreciated and efficient teacher in the Sunday school of the church.

Seated at the guest table were the Rev. T. C. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Neuding, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Morris, Ross Kirkpatrick, Mrs. L. L. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowe and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Walker. A bountiful covered dish dinner was enjoyed.

Following the dinner, Mrs. J. W. Trimmer, in behalf of the Ladies' Aid society presented Mr. and Mrs. Walker a gift in appreciation of the long association. An informal program of songs and an old time fellowship hour closed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker will remove this week to their farm in Washington township.

Miss English Hostess

Miss Ann English was hostess to the members of her bridge club Monday evening at her home in W. Main street. Mrs. J. W. Washburn, of Chicago, was a guest for the evening. Confections were served to the guests during the hours of play. When scores were tallied, prizes were presented Mrs. John Carle, Mrs. Fred Donnelly, and Mrs. Edward Sensenbrenner. Mrs. Elizabeth West received the traveling prize.

Miss Mary Howard will entertain the club in two weeks.

Ruth Brooks Hostess

Ruth Brooks was hostess to the members of the Junior Missionary Group of the Methodist Episcopal church Monday afternoon at her home in W. Corwin street.

The business hour will be followed by a program presented by the Washington township Grange. After the program there will be the usual social hour with refreshments served by the committee in charge.

TODAY'S RECIPES

MIXED GRILL.—Four lamb chops (or hamburger steaks about one-inch thick), four half slices canned pineapple, melted butter, salt, four peeled bananas. Arrange meat and pineapple on preheated rack of broiler. Brush pineapple with melted butter and sprinkle with salt. Place rack about three inches below broiler and broil in very hot oven (550 degrees F.). At the end of six minutes turn meat and pineapple, and place the bananas (brushed with melted butter and sprinkled with salt) on rack of broiler. Continue broiling about eight minutes longer. Serves four.

Prune Sherbet.—Three-fourths cup sugar, one-half cup water, one lemon, one cup prune pulp, two egg whites, one cup coffee cream. Boil sugar and water together until it spins a thread. Add lemon juice and prune pulp, cool and place in refrigerator until it freezes around the edge. Remove from refrigerator and add beaten egg whites and cream. Beat it if you like, but it does not make much difference. Stir once. Freeze in about three hours.

An exotic silk print tuck-in blouse and pencil skirt of white broadcloth were combined for a dance ensemble at Palm Springs, Cal. A belt made of simulated conch shells with turquoise motifs circled the waist. Such costumes are easy for the traveler to pack, and so are practical for travel, cruise and resort wardrobes.

MUTUAL ELECTS BAUM

Will Sitterly, of Fairfield County, Is Visitor

By S. D. FRIDLEY
Phone Ashville 79

While the "number racket" people are passing out a lot of money, it has occurred to our officials that Ashville Village could use some of it for a good purpose. A lot of things it can be used for. They have fattened up our treasury in the last few days by $116.60. The latest arrest was Monday, when a youngster known as Carl Weilbacher, West Jefferson, called a "pick-up man" was brought into Mayor Margulis' court and given the usual $58.30. The arresting officers were Marshal Walden and his deputy Cecil Scott. . . . And Doyle Bell was taken to Columbus yesterday by a deputy sheriff charged with nonsupport.

Farmers' Mutual Meets
The regular annual meeting of the Pickaway Farmers' Mutual Fire Association was held here Monday for the annual settlement and election of officers for the coming year.

The directors of this association are J. L. Baum, president; Ira Fisher, vice president; Lewis Barch, S. E. Beers, W. E. Sitterly, M. G. Stealy, Frank Valentine, Wilby Smalley, and Albert Worthington, directors. Baum, Sitterly and Stealy were re-elected directors to succeed themselves. Mrs. C. B. Teegardin, succeeding her late husband as secretary-treasurer, was a part of the association official family, at this meeting. She has been ably assisted in her work by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Teegardin.

Another meeting of the association will be held in Ashville at the directors' room of the Ashville Bank on Monday, Dec. 20, at 10 o'clock.

Will Sitterly Visits
We had not met our old friend Will Sitterly, just over the line in Fairfield, for a long while, but Monday we had the pleasure of having a good talk with him again. Asked him if he is yet raising potatoes and milking cows? Said the potatoes were not so many, but yet believed in the cows.

He was here in Ashville attending as a director, the regular annual meeting of the Pickaway County Farmers' Mutual Fire Association.

He told us he is again starting on a round of 25 Farmers' Institutes as one of the state speakers. He spends two days at each institute which has five sessions each and he must talk at each session, so at the 25 Institutes he is on for 125 talks which is plenty good for anyone who knows how and likes it. He is no novice in this line and has been an institute state speaker for several years. Said he is yet at the old homestead where he was born and hopes to be there many years yet. In the bygone days when there was such a thing as a Republican, some of Bill's friends here thought if we had to have one of that kind, we'd be glad to see him be our M. C. But we can see now how foolish it was to even think of such a thing.

Personal Notes
Rev. Glick and wife of Bucyrus were in attendance at the Wright-Kuhlwein wedding at the Lockbourne Lutheran church Sunday evening. . . . Dr. Hosler, wife, and Peter Johnson and family were off from Ashville for the South yesterday morning. They will be gone about two weeks.

Winter Not Here
And we had a rabbit-track snow yesterday again, and this makes the seventh of this kind so far this season and Winter is not here yet. December 21, they tell us, is when it starts. The "sure sign" bunch say we are to have an even fourteen and no more, because the first one was on the fourteenth of October. They say, though, that "sure signs" sometimes fail.

A BOY, 17, and his bride of two months, also 17, both of New York, are shown in Philadelphia police court following their arrest in connection with the slaying of a New York woman shopkeeper. The young bride, an expectant mother, is believed to have had no part in the killing but is charged with "being a fugitive in a homicide case." Both have been returned to New York.

Derby Church Celebrates Its Golden Anniversary

The Methodist Church of Derby celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its building Sunday. In spite of the inclement weather there were several visitors for the first session in conjunction with the Sunday School at 9:30.

After this the crowd repaired to the domestic science room at the school house where an abundant dinner was served. Many former members and residents here joined them and enjoyed an hour and more of eating talking, renewing old acquaintances and making new ones.

By 2 o'clock the people had returned to the church where the services of the afternoon were held. These consisted of songs, solos, duets, orchestra music, history of the church and then a sermon by Rev. H. D. Cooper, a former pastor of the church.

Following the Rev. Mr. Cooper came speeches of reminiscences of the pastor, words of congratulation and best wishes, of thanks for what the church had done for the speakers, who were former parishioners and friends of the church this in conjunction with letters from former members made the semi-centennial a success and an inspiration to the members.

Many of those present Sunday were among the people who attended the dedication of the church fifty years ago in October, 1887.

EXPENDITURE OF $2,500 FOR LAND GIVEN APPROVAL

Expenditure of $2,500 for the purchase of 9,391 square feet of land in Forest cemetery for additional burial ground for war veterans was approved Monday by the county commissioners.

The county, Circleville and Circleville township have worked out a combined program in connection with the land purchase. Adjoining the tract bought by the county is land owned jointly by the city and township.

The tract purchased is in the northwest section of the cemetery. Under the arrangement the city and township will donate sufficient land to fill out the burial ground to the circular road on the north part of the cemetery extending to the Catholic cemetery.

The present burial ground for soldiers contains 57 more graves for soldiers and 10 for widows. Pickaway county had 800 soldiers in the World War.

THEATRES

AT THE CLIFTONA

Two incidents interrupted location shooting at Mammoth Lakes at an altitude of 10,156 feet, where 90 members of a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer company were filming "The Bride Wore Red," now playing at the Cliftona Theatre.

Lynne Carver, attractive Kentucky debutante, who appears with Joan Crawford, Franchot Tone and Robert Young, saw snow for the first time since she left home two years ago and promptly tumbled over a precipice into an eight-foot drift.

Tone plunged over after her and after considerable digging rescued her, none the worse for the fall.

The second incident occurred when one of the mules gave unmistakable signs of mountain sickness on a narrow pass. The driver, a Sierra veteran, swiftly bound a burlap bag over the mule's eyes and the procession pushed onward and up.

AT THE GRAND

It has been customary to associate Sonja Henie with skating only, a sport at which she was three times Olympic champion. But the Norwegian lass has other distinctions, too.

Co-starred with Tyrone Power in "Thin Ice" Twentieth Century-Fox musical, at the Grand Theatre, Miss Henie is considered by Hugo Quist, former manager for Paavo Nurmi, as the greatest woman athlete known to the world of sports.

"She has won eighteen skiing championships," said Quist, "and she might even have won several Olympic honors, except for the fact that she specialized in skating only, in which she has no equal." In addition, Miss Henie won three tennis championships in the Scandinavian countries.

She appears in several specially conceived skating numbers in "Thin Ice," and is also seen on skis for the first time in many years.

The original manuscript of Francis Scott Key's "Star Spangled Banner" (first called "Defense of Fort M'Henry"), is in a Baltimore art gallery. Its value is estimated at $24,000.

MUSICIANS OF SCHOOLS TO PRACTICE WEDNESDAY

Another rehearsal for the county music festival will be held in the Ashville school on Wednesday, Dec. 8.

The chorus will hold its rehearsal at 10 a. m. A practice for the orchestra and band will be held at 1 p. m. The festival will be held at 8:15 p. m. Dec. 9 in the Ashville school.

M. T. Johnson, superintendent of Pickaway township school, who is manager of the basketball tournament by virtue of his school winning last year's tournament, has been instructed by the other superintendents to work out arrangements for referees.

WELL, I'LL TELL YOU. BY BOB BURNS

Almost any young student of navigation can steer a ship safely out in the open water, but it takes a seasoned old sailor to steer safely through hidden reefs and treacherous currents. It's pretty much the same in business. An education is a fine thing to have, but only bitter experience can teach you to avoid the pit-falls.

One of the most cautious men I ever knew was my Uncle Archie. The other day, when the mailman delivered a package to him and told him to sign a receipt, he studied the receipt for thirty minutes before he finally signed it.

When I asked him why he did that, he says "Well, ever since I signed my marriage certificate, I've made it a rule to read over all papers carefully."

Your Intestines WANT to Be Regular

If your intestines could talk, they'd tell you that common constipation comes from NEGLIGENT Modern meals too often omit Nature's "regulators"—the laxative parts of wheat.

You can avoid common constipation by eating Kellogg's All-Bran. All-Bran does TWO things. First, it gives you "bulk." It absorbs water and softens like a sponge—this water-softened mass aids elimination. And second, Vitamin "B,"—the vitamin that tones up your intestinal tract and promotes a healthy movement.

Kellogg's All-Bran is a crunchy, toasted cereal. Eat it with milk or cream and fruits—or in cooking. But however you eat it, use it REGULARLY. Eat two tablespoons of All-Bran and drink plenty of water. If you do this every day you can avoid common constipation—and cathartics, too. Every grocer sells All-Bran. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

About This And That In Many Sports

DETROITERS ON MIKE

Baseball fans of Detroit are crying for the scalp of Mike Cochrane for "letting them down" in the trade that took Gerry Walker and Marvin Owen to the Chicago White Sox in exchange for Vernon Kennedy, one of the best right-handed twirlers in the American loop, and Fred "Dixie" Walker, a fair-to-middling outfielder. There were a couple of other ball players included in the deal, but the real swap was Walker-Owen for Kennedy-Walker. Tony Piet, waived out of the National league quite a while ago, goes from Chicago to Detroit, and Mike Tresh, a better-than-average rookie received, becomes Chicago property.

GEE WALKER IS QUESTION

Just how the trade turns out depends on a lot of things. Gerald Walker, dangerous at the plate and dependable in the pasture, is about the world's worst baserunner. The 1936 season was one of the best he has ever experienced, and Jimmy Dykes might have knocked off a homey in the career of a duffer. It is his loss that has the Tiger fans up in arms. Gee Walker can do lots of things on a baseball field, and Detroiters are not anxious that he should do them for the White Sox. Marv Owen will answer the Chicago question at third base, and give Dykes a chance to do his work from the bench. Tresh will likely be the first understudy for the veteran Duke Sewell.

MUCH UNCERTAIN

From the Detroit side of the state, here's the standing: Kennedy, if right, will take the place of the ailing Schoolboy Rowe, whose salary whip has become a big question mark. Kennedy is good enough for any club in the loop. Dixie Walker is not Gerald Walker with the willow, nor is he so colorful, but he is a steady ball player. Piet may be washed-up and again he may not be. Cochrane is planning to use a rookie from the Texas league at third base, but Piet will be hanging around just in case.

UP TO KENNEDY

From this corner it would seem that Chicago got a little the better of the deal, but should Kennedy win 18 or 20 ball games, the issue might be changed considerably.

Bowling News

Container Corporation bowlers knocked the Gold Cliff Chateau Lefties out of a tie for first place in the Industrial league, Monday evening, by taking three straight games. Difference in the team averages gave the Containers a 56-pin handicap for each game, but they didn't need any handicap to win.

Elkins and Vanatta rolled above the 500-pin mark for the winners while Riggins was the only south-paw able to pass 500.

Slaughter's Fine Hitting Proves Association's Best

NEW YORK, Dec. 7—(UP)—Enos B. Slaughter, hard-hitting Columbus Red Bird outfielder, led the American association in batting with an average of .382, according to statistics released today.

Slaughter, who was promoted from Class B to Class AA baseball in one season and played in every one of his team's 154 games this year, pounded out 245 hits.

He collected 26 homers, 13 triples and 42 doubles for 391 total bases. Fifteen points behind Slaughter was John Heath of Milwaukee. Two other members of the pennant-winning Columbus club—John Rizzo and Max Macon—finished third and fourth with .328 and .357 respectively.

Rizzo staged the best batting streak, hitting safely in 36 consecutive games. He collected 62 hits in 145 times at bat for an average of .428.

Carl Reynolds of Minneapolis, who finished fifth in association batting with .355, made 49 two-

GOATHAM'S NEWS WRITERS DECIDE THOMAS STRONG

Minnesota Contender Willing To Make Bout 15 Rounds Instead of 10

CONTEST MONDAY NIGHT

Defeat For Maxie Would Settle Many Questions

NEW YORK, Dec. 7—(UP)—Max Schmeling was a 2½ to 1 favorite over Harry Thomas today, but the confidence, superb physical condition and all around athletic ability of the Minnesota mauler appeared likely to trim the odds to 8-5 by ring time Monday night.

There was a growing feeling that Thomas, handicapped as a target for Schmeling to use in sharpening his sights for Joe Louis next Summer, might blast Maxie's claim to the No. 1 heavyweight challenger's role.

It will be Schmeling's first fight in 18 months—since June 1936 when he knocked out Joe Louis in 12 rounds—and he is at the age, past 30, when men of his profession do not improve, but begin to deteriorate. Maxie is a "clean-liver," but history has shown that there is no substitute for competition.

Thomas at Peak Age
Thomas is at the age, 26, when boxers reach their peak. He is a busy puncher, packing dynamite in either hand. He has knocked out 59 opponents in 71 bouts, and lost only three decisions. He takes a punch well and still don't know what it means to be on the canvas. His best weapon is a right hook.

Schmeling was tipped off on Thomas' ability the day he arrived in this country, and immediately insisted the bout be increased to 15 rounds from the originally scheduled 10. Harry assented, quietly remarking:

"If he can stay 15 rounds with me, he'll be the first man who ever did."

That remark is typical of Thomas' confidence in himself, and he has sold nearly every visitor to his Pompton Lakes, N. J., training camp on the idea. He impresses one that he cannot fail, and one New York writer has gone so far as to pick the six-foot blond to win by a knockout.

Despite his height, Harry looks dumpy because of his bull-shoulders and tapering torso. He thrives on a training schedule and insists on his roadwork despite adverse weather conditions. He is a bundle of muscle, giving the appearance of a gymnast or an acrobat rather than a boxer. He played football at Trinity college in Iowa, captained the baseball team and later played professional ball, catching for the Los Angeles Angels two seasons.

Would Reverse Boycott
If Thomas should upset the German, it would not only blast Maxie's dream of becoming the first man ever to regain the heavyweight title, but also would remove the menace of the anti-Nazi boycott of the proposed June title fight in New York.

Promoter Mike Jacobs already has threatened to move the Schmeling-Louis bout from New York if the boycott affects the Schmeling-Thomas fight. He has scaled Madison Square garden to draw $100,000 with a capacity house next Monday.

"Our American Cousin" was the play being presented at Ford's theatre in Washington, D. C., when President Abraham Lincoln was shot.

Gauthier Sounds Death Knell Of Buckeye A. A.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 7—(UP)—George Gauthier, athletic director of Ohio Wesleyan and secretary of the Buckeye conference, today predicted the compact little collegiate athletic league would not survive the crisis which it faces when the annual winter meeting is held this week-end at Columbus.

"With the question of subsidization of athletes involved it will be a marvel if the Buckeye remains intact," Gauthier said in an address before an alumni group here.

Gauthier said he was not opposed to "open and honest" subsidies for athletes, but that he was unalterably opposed to "under hand acts." The Wesleyan athletic director alleged the latter type of aid was being given football players in one or more Buckeye schools. He declined to name the schools.

Gauthier, because of two straight losing seasons, has been the target for some alumni groups who seek a younger coach.

Touching on this point the Wesleyan coach said: "I am willing to step aside anytime anyone else can handle the team and get better results. I'll do it voluntarily and no one needs to go behind my back to bring it about."

Gauthier bitterly attacked the fraternities on the Wesleyan campus for their failure to co-operate with athletic heads. He charged the fraternity leaders failed to co-operate because it would inconvenience them "socially."

At least a dozen horses which won prominent American stakes in the last three years were regarded as probable starters in the race—richest in the world. Azucar, the performed steeplechaser which won the first handicap in 1935, was not included in the list. But Top Row and Rosemont, 1936 and 1937 victors, will be back for another try.

Other leaders considered certain to answer the bugle March 5 were Calumet Dick; Fairy Hill and He Did, winners of the $50,000-added Santa Anita derby in 1936 and 1937; Pompon; Amor Brujo, the "love witch," sensation of the northern California circuits; Anero, Heelfly, Chanceview, Time Supply, a Santa Anita veteran, and Sceneshifter.

ARMSTRONG AND AMBERS VICTORS IN TOY BATTLES

CLEVELAND, Dec. 7—(UP)—Featherweight Champion Henry Armstrong today had moved a step nearer to a chance at the world lightweight boxing crown, after knocking out Tony Chavez, of Albuquerque, N. M., last night in two minutes and 14 seconds of the first round of their scheduled 10-round bout.

Armstrong, boring in on the Mexican from the bell, floored Chavez five times. The fifth time Chavez went down, after a hard right to the head, he took a count of five before the referee stopped the fight and raised Armstrong's hand in victory. It was the 25th knockout for the Negro boxer in his last 26 fights.

Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers, in the other featured bout of the Cleveland News' annual toy-shop fund card, took a unanimous 10-round decision over Frankie Wallace, of Cleveland. A crowd of 12,888, largest ever to see a Cleveland indoor match, watched the fights.

Neither Armstrong's nor Ambers' title was at stake, as both entered the ring overweight for their divisions.

Central Press Sports Editor
HENRY ARMSTRONG, black thunderbolt among the little fellows, is featherweight champion of the world, but he won't be that for very long. Armstrong plans abandonment of the feather title, and a crack at the crown worn now by Lou Ambers.

Armstrong reveals his ambition through Eddie Meade, manager. A well-educated young Negro, showing amazing command of the language, Henry says "I feel strong and capable enough now to maintain myself among fighters of increased poundage, and with that purpose in mind, desire a meeting with Ambers."

How Eddie Says It

Eddie Meade puts it this way: "Henry can't make the feather limit no more and keep his power. We want Ambers."

Offhand, it appears Ambers is in for a bad evening. Armstrong is just about the meanest ringful of fighting man an opponent ever tackled. Loosed in the ring he is a bounding bundle of fury, throwing punches from every direction, and he has tremendous strength. With the hips and legs of a bantam, he has shoulders and arms a middleweight might be proud to own. Henry wears a size 16 collar, which gives you an idea of his tapered build.

Overpowers Opponent

Armstrong has rolled up a string of knockouts from here to there during the last 18 months. He is one of those boys who is constantly punching, after the pattern set by Terrible Terry McGovern, bringing down his opponent by sheer speed and punching power, rather than boxing ability.

An Ambers-Armstrong fight is the next big card the ring has to offer—and it won't be long.

DEAD BALL ISSUE MAY SPLIT TWO MAJOR LEAGUES

CHICAGO, Dec. 7 — (UP) —

Quantities of silence from jittery baseball traders switched speculation today from players deals at both major league convention hotels to the rabbit-ball issue which may split the two leagues.

Most of the traders have scurried for cover or become overcautious since Detroit sent popular Gerald Walker to the Chicago White Sox and drew a barrage of protests from Tiger fans.

Not one of the 15 other clubs was willing to take a similar chance, although trades involving Van Mungo of Brooklyn, Beau Bell and Buck Newsom of the St. Louis Browns, still were in the air.

The "dealer" ball argument was the liveliest piece of business on the program for the second day of the annual Winter meetings. Both leagues announced a year ago they favored a less lively ball, but in its first business session of 1937 the American League began to hedge and apparently wants to retain the hopped up ball now in use.

The National League, favoring a slightly "dealer ball," will meet with manufacturers today to determine what improvements have been made in the experimental ball tried out last season.

HARVARD, FORDHAM AND DUKE PLAYERS CHOSEN

HAMILTON, N. Y., Dec. 7 — (UP) —

Players from Harvard, Fordham and Duke have accepted invitations to play on an All-Eastern eleven against a team of Western stars in San Francisco's annual charity football game on New Year's Day, Coach Andy Kerr announced today.

Kerr, who with Bernie Bierman, Minnesota mentor, will select 22 players from east of the Mississippi river said that Alex Wojciechowski, Fordham's All-America center; Joe Nee, 200-pound Harvard guard, and Elmore (Honey) Hackney, Duke's flashy halfback, had accepted the chance to perform for the benefit of the Shrine's hospital for crippled children.

Old Notre Dame-Michigan Stories Recalled
Now That They Plan to Resume Grid Relations
Eligibility Dispute—the Bernie Kirk Case

THE NEWS that Notre Dame and Michigan are planning to renew football relations brings back some ancient tales . . . of days when football was a bit more rough-and-tumble from a scholastic standpoint than at present . . . in 1908 Notre Dame finally beat Michigan after losing seven games to the Wolverines . . . that Notre Dame team was coached by "Shorty" Longman, former Michigan player, and the defeat didn't sit well at Ann Arbor.

Anyway, in 1909 Michigan questioned the eligibility of two Irish linemen, Dimick and Philbrook, who has played football for several years in the northwest coming to Notre Dame from Walla Walla Junior college . . . though the contract for the 1909 game specified that these two men could play, the game was called off by Michigan.

Notre Dame was a bit galled some years later—along about 1920 if my memory is working—by the case of Bernie Kirk . . . Kirk, a great end, played a year of football at Notre Dame . . . then strangely dropped out of school and matriculated at Michigan where he became an All-American . . . Yost was blamed for "inviting" Bernie to leave the Irish and become a Wolverine . . . but I guess time heals everything . . .

BUCKEYE CLINIC FOR COACHES TO BE HELD DEC. 11

COLUMBUS, Dec. 7 — High school basketball coaches of Pickaway county are invited to be guests of Ohio State university at the annual basketball clinic set for Saturday, Dec. 11.

Nebraska will be playing Ohio State that night at the coliseum in the first home game of the season for the Bucks. The clinic session will be in the afternoon, arrangements being in the hands of Coach H. G. Olsen.

W. H. Browne, Nebraska coach, will speak on one phase of the game, and other topics will be covered by L. W. St. John, Ohio State athletic director who is chairman of the national rules committee, and Floyd Rowe, Cleveland, member of the state high school board of athletic control. Two freshman teams under the direction of Floyd Stahl will demonstrate various offensive and defensive phases of the game.

Ohio State has two other home games this month—Creighton on Dec. 27, and California on Dec. 29.

TEAM RECORDS BEATEN IN PRO GRIDIRON LOOP

NEW YORK, Dec. 7 — (UP) — Three team records were established and three of five 1936 leaders were displaced in the National Professional football league, statistics showed today.

Due to the individual brilliance of Sammy Baugh, making his professional debut with Washington, the Redskins broke the week-old passing record set by Green Bay. Completing 99 passes in 222 attempts for an efficiency average of 44.5 percent they bettered the Packers' mark of 43.9 percent. The Packers completed 95 of 216 thrown to break their last year record of 41 percent efficiency.

The league record for forward passing also was bettered, 594 out of 1,543 being completed for a mark of 38.5 percent compared to last year's 36.5 percent.

Third mark to be shattered was the league scoring record. Ten teams amassed 1,424 points. The old record was 1,302 set in 1934 by nine teams.

FARM LABORER EARN'S LOWEST WORKER'S PAY

Department of Agriculture

Estimates $300 As His Yearly Average

SOUTH BELOW NORTH

Income Gains Must Faster Than Salary Scale

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(UP) Farm laborers are the lowest-paid class of workers in America, a Department of Agriculture survey revealed today.

Annual earnings range from $62 to $748 a year among groups surveyed and average approximately $300. Average farm wages in many localities were found to be less than 50 cents a day.

The department estimated there are 2,500,000 persons engaged as farm laborers. An intensive personal canvass was made of laborers in 11 counties in as many states in representative sections of the country.

Investigators went into the heart of the corn belt, the wheat belt, the cattle and sheep country, into tobacco, cotton, fruit and dairy regions. The survey included part-time as well as permanent employees.

Lag in Farm Wages

Farm wages, although they have increased 50 percent since 1932, have not risen as rapidly as farm income and city wage earnings, the survey said. Compared with other wage-earning groups farm laborers receive 20 percent less than they did in the five years before 1929.

"In 1936, income from farm production, including benefit payments, averaged 130 percent of pre-war, non farm income averaged 148 percent, but farm wages instead of rising to a comparable level rose only to 107 percent," the survey said.

The average age of farm laborers is increasing, the report concluded. Whereas young men previously dominated, the average age of farm "hired help" now is about 35 years. One-third were past 40 and in some areas men past 60 were found working in fields at 50 cents a day.

Female southern cotton pickers were the lowest paid class, earning an average of $62 a year. Male cotton pickers in Louisiana earned an average of $178 a year. Oriental workers in California reported the highest average income, $748 a year.

Average earnings of southern workers interviewed were only slightly more than half the earnings of northern workers. In no southern county was the annual earnings as much as $100 per person. Northern workers received an average income of $140 per person, which included all members of the family.

Sharp sectional differences were found in educational attainment of the laborers, ranging from illiteracy to high school education. Northern workers generally were better educated.

A negligible percentage of southern workers had more than an elementary education, but 25 percent of more of the northern workers had completed at least one year of high school work.

The survey showed farm laborers took only a limited part in organized activities of their communities, belonging to few formal organizations, unions or farm groups. Southerners went to church more often than northerners. Northerners went more often to the movies.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

SLAM MATERIAL

EVEN OPPOSITE a very sound and conservative bidder, it is seldom wise to give a positive response to his opening game guarantee bid of two in a suit except with very substantial reasons for the call. Some of the best players insist on having either at least one first round trick or two second round tricks, such as guarded kings. Lacking these, they would make the first round weakness response of 2-No Trumps. For slam purposes, a K-Q or even a K-Q-J combination is not usually as useful as a couple of K's or an A.

- ♠ K Q J 7
♥ 10 9 4
♦ 8 7 5
♣ 10 5 3
- ♠ 10 9 2
♦ 10 6 4 2
♣ Q J 9 8 2
- ♠ A
♥ A K Q 8 6 2
♦ A 9 3
♣ A K 6

(Dealer: South. Neither side vulnerable.)

When South started the bidding in this deal with 2-Hearts, North felt his spade suit was good enough to give a positive response of 2-Spades. As soon as South heard this he was prepared for a slam and ended in 6-Hearts.

When the club Q was led, South realized he was in a very difficult spot, as North had misled him into thinking the hand would produce several tricks. To declarer's dismay, he found he could not get into dummy unless the outstanding trumps dropped in two rounds.

Upon further reflection, he realized that there was a possibility that the hand could still be made by giving up a trump trick, rather than risk the possibility that the trumps were as he hoped. He therefore cashed his spade A to unblock that suit and led a small heart. East won and returned the diamond K, but the contract was now safe. In spite of his brilliant play which brought success, declarer still felt North had overbid his hand.

How should South play to make 3-No Trumps after the lead of the club Q?
